EXPLANATORY COMMENTS

Dr. Alan Barry, Commissioner of Social Services and the members of the Board of Social Services have requested that the name of the Department of Social Services and the Board of Social Services, and all other related references (to the Commissioner of Social Services or Deputy of Social Services) be changed to “human” services. The new name better reflects the work the department does for clients and the community. The department has transitioned from functioning as a casework agency that assisted clients with attaining entitlements/benefits and financial assistance to a case management services setting with staff working in partnership with clients to support their efforts to become more self-sufficient. In addition, the new name will be better understood by the public and eliminate the potential for confusion with the State of Connecticut Department of Social Services. The requested name change is consistent with a trend in neighboring municipalities.

The references to “social services” in the Town’s Charter appear in the sections of the Charter relating to the Department of Social Services and the Commissioner of Social Services, Article 5, Section 62 and Section 63. In addition, there are references to “social services” elsewhere in the Charter: In Article 2, Section 21(a); Article 9, Section 82(a)(4); Article 15, Section 217B(d), Section 223(a), and Section 225. In addition, there is a reference to “social services” in Section 14-2(b) of the Town of Greenwich Municipal Code. Thus, each of these sections requires amendment to reflect the name change.

The Board of Social Services voted in favor of the name change on December 20, 2016.

The Board of Selectmen voted in favor of the name change and amendments on January 12, 2017.

The foregoing proposal for home rule action requires an affirmative vote of a majority of the entire membership of the Representative Town Meeting at a meeting warned for that purpose.

EXPLANATORY COMMENTS

This is a proposed technical correction which is limited to redesignating the number of a section of the Charter, Article 15, Section 217B to be Section 217A. Section 217B is the subject of a separate proposed amendment (name change to "human" services). It is appropriate to make the proposed technical correction at this time.

On June 12, 2006, there were several proposals before the RTM to amend the Charter of the Town of Greenwich. The proposals included, but were not limited to, adding two new sections, Section 217A and Section 217B to Article 15 of the Charter. Section 217B, the section relating to the Department of Human Resources and the Director of Human Resources, was approved by the RTM and subsequently approved by the voters at a referendum. Proposed Section 217A, the subject of another proposed new section of the Charter, however, was not approved by the RTM on June 12, 2006. Thus, there is no section designated as Section 217A in the existing Charter; Section 217B, the section relating to the Department of Human Resources and the Director of Human Resources, directly follows Section 217 of the Charter. The number of Section 217B should be corrected to be Section 217A.

The Board of Selectmen voted in favor of this amendment at its meeting on January 12, 2017.
